Why Go To A Dog Show?

"I wouldn't be caught dead at a dog show, or for that matter, ever subject a hound of mine to such an ordeal."

This remark is not only a familiar cry of cats, but of some people who consider dog shows a place where perfumed aristocrats of the race, not worth their weight in salt, cavort.

Chances are they have never been to a show or haven't any idea what it's all about.

Frankly one doesn't have to be a canine breeder to get a kick out of an event like the annual Del Monte Kennel Club Dog Show which will be held at Pebble Beach, Sunday.

Chances are if he has a pet he can pick up enough free samples of food to make it worth while.

Then again, if he is a student of the human race, he should find it amusing to note the close resemblances of the variety of dogs entered and their owners.

Actually the casual dog raiser or potential servant of His Honor has other equally good reasons to attend.

If your dog isn't entered, you may want to see how he stacks up with the best in his breed. The fact that there will be 1,000 dogs entered will afford ample opportunity for a measurement of Bowser.

Then again, if you are about to purchase a dog, a visit to the show and a talk with various breeders may convince you what you want and where you can get one and what points you should look for.

The informality of the Pebble Beach one-day show and the fact that dog breeders like nothing better than to kibitz about their dogs makes this easy.

Your problem may be something like that of a friend of mine whose son one day brought home a dog with claims that it was a pure-bred Briard.

Frankly, my friend, who had never had a dog as a boy, had never heard of the Frenchmen's special. Therefore, he and his young son made the trip to the show last year. They found that their Briard was a first class Airedale.

Still another reason for attending a show is to witness the obedience trails, where you can pick up some fine pointers on how a dog should be trained.

As to the dog raiser who has an entry, whether he is a professional or an ama-

EDITOR'S NOTE:

The next regular monthly issue of the Spectator Journal of normal size — 60 to 80 pages — will be published next week.

Delayed by a move to larger printing facilities to meet our fast growing circulation, we have put out this Special Dog Show Issue principally to accommodate wide publication of the Del Monte Kennel Club Show, which our county, state and national circulation affords.

The show, one of the brightest events of the year here, deserves the full support of the residents of this area.

Fine entertainment and an attraction to tourists, it also helps in another way. Proceeds from the show go to Peninsula Pets, a local non-profit animal service that is on call at all times to assist with animals.

INCIDENTALLY ON THE NEWSSTANDS THIS WEEK WE HAVE AN EXTRAORDINARY SPECIAL —a combination offer of the dog show issue plus the giant 124 page Spectator's Guide and Omnibook to the Monterey Peninsula and the Salinas Valley for only 50 cents. — Limited time only.

Canine Royalty at Pebble Beach

His honor will have his day here this Sunday with over 1000 of the Nation's top, blue-blooded bowsers vieing for best dog in the famed Del Monte Kennel Club all breeds show.

The event, largest outdoor dog show in Northern California, will find Champ Taejon of Crown Crest, an Afghan, back to defend the title. The dog winner of 18 best in shows is owned by Mrs. Kay Finch of Corona Del Mar.

Another standout will be Champion Banshee. The English Bulldog won the Beverly Riviera Kennel Club Show in Southern California earlier this month. The win climaxed three straight Best of Show victories in his last three entries. The dog is owned by John O'Melveny of Los Angeles.

Still another to watch is Sir Champ James of Rexford, a Springer Spaniel and recent winner of the Westminster Show in New York.

Competition will run high in individual breeds with the largest entries in Springer Spaniels 46, Poodles 52, German Short-Haired Pointers 43, Afghans 23, Boxers 40, and Bedlington Terriers 23.

Also the show will feature its largest obedience trials with some 130 dogs competing.

Rounding out the feature attractions will be a number of unusual dogs including a Hungarian Vizla, a Sidney Silkes, Norwich Terriers, Rhodesian Ridgebacks and a barkless Basenji.

Matching the dogs in distinction will be the judges, who are among the Nation's best. Best in Show will be judged by Hugh A. Lewis, City Editor of the Los Angeles Times. Frances Pickett, one of the leading authorities on German Shepherds, will judge that breed.

Mrs. Will Judy, wife of Capt. Judy, publisher of Dog World, will take on Cocker Spaniels. Incidentally, Judy is also publisher of a literary magazine called The Spectator, which bears no relation or resemblance to the Carmel-Pacific Spectator Journal.

The dog maps on the following pages are in this issue through the courtesy of the Judy Publishing Company, of Chicago.

Proceeds of the dog show will go to Peninsula Pets, a local non-profit organization, serving dogs.

Samuel F. B. Morse and Allen Griffin are honorary president and vice-president of the Del Monte Kennel Club. Henry Tiedemann is president, Mrs. John E. Craige, vice president, James Crawford, treasurer, Derek Rayne, corresponding secretary, Robert L. Van Blarcom, recording secretary. Directors are Mrs. Roy Glasgow, Mrs. Elizabeth Boyer, Mrs. Donald Smith, Mrs. Robert L. Van Blarcom and Donald Smith.

Ban Blarcom is chairman of the Bench Show Committee, assisted by Derek G. Rayne, in charge of trophies and Jake Huizenga, obedience chairman.

Why Go to A Dog Show?

teur, a dog show offers him an opportunity to see how his product stacks up with the rest of his breed in competition.

This has the end result of improvement of the breeds, with dog breeders, both amateur and professional, striving for perfection.

The whole thing is something like a tournament: individual class judging until a best of a particular breed is selected. The best of breeds then compete in general classifications of dogs, like working dogs and sporting dogs. The winners of these big classes then compete for the best of show.

Obedience trials generally fall into three of four classes. The trials vary from those for inexperienced dogs to those who have won certificates in previous competitions.

The novice trials cover elementary obedience work while the advanced trials go into judging and scent discrimination.

Special schools for telephone people

The young lady at right is putting in her first day with the telephone company. Actually, she's in school, training at a practice switchboard to be an operator. In the same way, lots of other people with no telephone experience have become skilled in telephone work. We run many different schools for our employees, to train them as linemen, service representatives, and so on. This special schooling helps telephone people build better careers for themselves. And it also means your service is always in the hands of well-trained people. The men and women of Pacific Telephone work to make your telephone more useful every day.

Seen "Telephone Time" on TV?

"Telephone Time" is a new dramatic TV series, on home screens in the Pacific West for the first time this month. It is narrated by John Nesbitt and based on his own true stories gathered the world over. This Sunday, "Telephone Time" brings you a suspense story called "Away Boarders". It tells of a risky and important capture during World War II of the German submarine U-505. Each week there will be stories of heroism, comedy, history or warm human emotion—always true, always entertaining. Make "Telephone Time" a regular Sunday viewing habit. Please check your television log for local time and station.

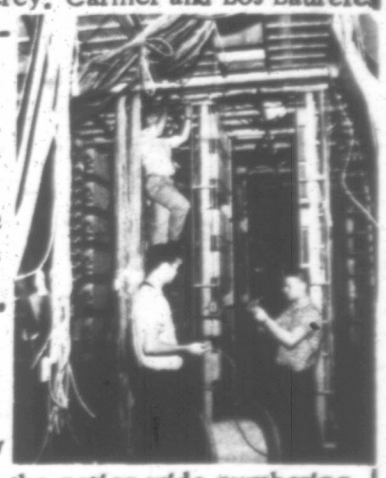
The New Prefixes

As part of Pacific Telephone's $500,000.00 expansion and service improvement program for Monterey, Carmel and Los Laureles area, all phone numbers will be changed. The new phone numbers will have five digits plus a prefix.



This picture shows some of the many things that have to be done in order that we can make this change over. Shown here are Western Electric men, Jerry Jones, Doug Corcilius, and R. H. Wolford. They are adding equipment in the central office for a seven digit dialing system which will go into effect this summer. The new numbers will place your telephone in the nation-wide numbering system being established throughout the country.

DON'T BE STAMPEDED!

There IS opposition to the so-called "oil conservation" measure being circulated in California

Its promoters are Standard Oil, Richfield Oil, and several other major international oil companies with

HUGE ARABIAN OIL INVESTMENTS

They have already spent several million dollars to propagandize their scheme. They are planning to spend millions more to put it over at the November election.

WHY?

In the public interest?

Or in their own interest?

Why did they by-pass your representatives in the State Legislature?

Were they afraid that committee hearings and floor debate would expose their "conservation" bill as a greedy and arrogant OIL CONTROL device to give them MONOPOLY over the oil business in California?

Why didn't they consult the hundreds of small independent California producers, refiners and marketers?

Was it because they want to choke off competition from the independents? If the independents are throttled, won't the major international oil companies flood California with Arabian oil and line their pockets with fabulous profits?

HOW WILL OIL CONTROL AFFECT YOU?

What will it mean to the property owners of California?

How many California workers will it throw out of jobs?

What will it cost the State in wealth and taxes?

THE CALIFORNIA OIL INDUSTRY OPERATES TODAY—AND HAS OPERATED FOR YEARS—UNDER STRICT STATE CONSERVATION LAWS. THESE LAWS ARE THE BEST IN THE NATION.

YES, there IS opposition to this OIL CONTROL scheme; and there will be growing opposition from an aroused public when the true story is told.
